

Getting from Rome Fiumicino Airport to Rome

Fiumicino Airport is located on the outskirts, towards the west of the capital, about 32 km from the historic center of Rome and a few kilometers away from the center of Fiumicino town.

You have several options to easily get to the centre of Rome by public transport. Information available here: <https://www.adr.it/web/aeroporti-di-roma-en/pax-fco-to-and-from>

Trains: You should use the regional train (FL1). Where the Leonardo Express takes you directly to Rome Termini, the regional train has several stops in Rome, including in the station Roma Ostiense, located at walking distance from Abitart Hotel and other hotels near FAO. We suggest you use this option. To catch this train, you need to exit Terminal 3, and walk outside towards the covered parking; you would need to cross two roads where cars pickup passengers and then walk towards the train station outside the terminal (see map attached). Tickets can be purchased with your credit cards at a kiosk there, as well as from a person in a ticket booth. Cost for the local train to Ostiense is 8 Euro. You need to mention the station while purchasing the ticket. All hotels provided to you are closest to this station, and not Termini.

If you rather travel by bus, there are several bus companies that travel to Rome from the Airport. Most of these leave from the exit of Terminal 3 (T3). Traveling by bus from the airport to the centre of Rome takes about one hour. Most of the buses leave from the airport every 30 minutes.

Taxi service is available at Terminal 1 and Terminal 3 Arrival areas.
